Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

As previously disclosed, on April 10, 2020, MFA Financial, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a forbearance agreement with certain counterparties to the Company’s various repurchase agreement financing arrangements (“Repo Agreements”), which was set to expire on April 27, 2020, at 6:30 PM ET (the “First Forbearance Agreement”). The principal terms and conditions of the First Forbearance Agreement were summarized in the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 13, 2020 (the “April 13th 8-K”), and a copy of the First Forbearance Agreement was filed as an exhibit to the April 13th 8-K.

On April 27, 2020, the Company and certain counterparties to its Repo Agreements (each, a “Participating Counterparty” and collectively, the “Participating Counterparties”) entered into a Second Forbearance Agreement (the “Second Forbearance Agreement”). During the Forbearance Term (as defined in the Second Forbearance Agreement), each Participating Counterparty has agreed to forbear from exercising any of its rights or remedies (including, without limitation, a Participating Counterparty’s right to sell collateral in order to enforce margin calls) as a result of specified events of default under the Repo Agreements. Participating Counterparties to the Second Forbearance Agreement represent repurchase obligations of an aggregate of $4.4 billion, which represents approximately 84% of the Company’s $5.3 billion Repo Agreement obligations outstanding as of April 24, 2020. Since entering into the First Forbearance Agreement on April 10, 2020, the Company’s obligations under its and its subsidiaries’ Repo Agreements have decreased by approximately 8%. This reduction occurred primarily from ongoing sales of certain assets and the payoff of the associated repurchase obligations and unpaid margin calls.

The terms and conditions of the Second Forbearance Agreement are substantially similar to the terms and conditions of the First Forbearance Agreement, except as discussed below and for other administrative, conforming and otherwise non-material modifications. The Company incorporates herein by reference to the description of the First Forbearance Agreement set forth in the April 13th 8-K, and the description of the Second Forbearance Agreement below should be read in conjunction with the information set forth under Item 1.01 of the April 13th 8-K.

Set forth below are the primary differences between the First Forbearance Agreement and the Second Forbearance Agreement:

- Term and Termination. The term of the Second Forbearance Agreement begins on April 27, 2020, and continues through 4:30 p.m. ET on June 1, 2020 (the “Forbearance Term”), unless terminated earlier upon the occurrence of one or more of termination triggering events, including those disclosed in the April 13th 8-K (each, a “Termination Triggering Event,” and collectively, the “Termination Triggering Events”); provided, however, that the following event has been removed as a Termination Triggering Event under the Second Forbearance Agreement: a non-participating counterparty to the Second Forbearance Agreement exercising remedies under any Repo Agreements or any similar agreements with the Company to sell or otherwise dispose of assets corresponding to an aggregate gross principal balance in excess of $330 million. The Forbearance Agreement does not provide for automatic extensions beyond the Forbearance Term, and a further agreement among the Company and the Participating Counterparties must be executed to extend the Forbearance Term. The Second Forbearance Agreement does not ascribe any reduced rights with respect to collateral for any Participating Counterparty that does not agree to extend the Forbearance Term after June 1, 2020.
- Interest Rate. Under the Second Forbearance Agreement, during the Forbearance Term, each Participating Counterparty will accrue interest on the outstanding balance under its Repo Agreement at a rate of LIBOR (as defined and determined pursuant to the terms of each applicable Repo Agreement) plus 5%, or such greater rate as a Participating Counterparty may be entitled to under its applicable Repo Agreement.
- Covenants by the Company. In addition to those covenants made in connection with the First Forbearance Agreement, the Company has agreed that within two (2) business days of April 27, 2020, the Company will make a cash payment in the amount of $150 million to the Participating Counterparties, which will be applied to reduce the Company’s outstanding repurchase obligation balances with the Participating Counterparties.

The above description of the terms of the Second Forbearance Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Second Forbearance Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference, and such description should also be read in conjunction with the information set forth under Item 1.01 of the April 13th 8-K.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

The Company has continued taking steps to manage and de-lever its portfolio and generate liquidity. In particular, since April 10, 2020, the Company has sold residential mortgage assets at improved levels, as prices have partially recovered from the depressed valuations seen from mid-March through early April. These sales resulted in proceeds of $484.4 million, and included, $282.9 million of MSR-related assets, $147.7 million of CRT securities and $51.4 million of Agency MBS.

Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On April 27, 2020, the Company issued a press release announcing, among other things, information related to its cash on hand and the market value of assets that are secured as collateral under the Second Forbearance Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and, with respect to such financial information, is incorporated herein by reference.

The information provided pursuant to this Item 2.02, including Exhibit 99.1, is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Second Forbearance Agreement Press Release

On April 27, 2020, the Company issued a press release related to the Second Forbearance Agreement and certain other Company updates, a copy of which is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The information provided pursuant to this Item 7.01, including Exhibit 99.1, is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for the purposes of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

In the April 13th 8-K, the Company previously supplemented its risk factors described under “Item 1A. Risk Factors” in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019 to address the impact of COVID-19 on the Company’s business. The Company hereby incorporates by reference herein the COVID-related risk factors included under Item 8.01 in the Prior 8-K.

RECITALS

A. The Companies are party to various repurchase agreements and other related agreements with the Participating Counterparties, as well as certain other agreements with the Participating Counterparties, including those set forth on Schedule 2 (such agreements, collectively, the "Applicable Agreements").

B. The Companies are party to that certain Forbearance Agreement, dated as of April 10, 2020 (the "First Forbearance Agreement"), with certain buyer parties listed on Schedule 1 thereto (the "First Forbearance Counterparties"), and the forbearance period under the First Forbearance Agreement is scheduled to end on April 27, 2020.

C. The Companies acknowledge and agree that various defaults and/or events of default exist or are likely to exist, or with the passage of time will or are likely to occur, under the terms of one or more of the Applicable Agreements with Participating Counterparties, including without limitation on account of (i) the failure by one or more Seller Entities to make certain payments to the applicable Participating Counterparties under the Applicable Agreements related to margin calls, requests for payments, other payment provisions, financial covenants, or termination provisions, (ii) the failure by one or more Seller Entities to deliver certain notices to Participating Counterparties, and/or (iii) cross-default provisions under the Applicable Agreements (collectively, the "Acknowledged Events of Default").

D. The Companies have requested that the Participating Counterparties forbear from exercising any and all rights and remedies under the Applicable Agreements or applicable law relating to any or all of the Acknowledged Events of Default, unless as otherwise provided in this Agreement.

E. The Participating Counterparties have agreed to forbear from exercising their rights and remedies with respect to the Acknowledged Events of Default solely during the Forbearance Period (as defined below) on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the promises, mutual covenants, releases, and agreements herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Forbearance. From and after the Effective Date (as defined below) and through the earlier of: (i) 4:30 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time on June 1, 2020, and (ii) the occurrence and continuance of a Triggering Event (as defined herein) (the "Forbearance Period"), each of the Participating Counterparties shall and hereby agrees to forbear from exercising any of its rights or remedies, as applicable, under its respective Applicable Agreements in respect of the Acknowledged Events of Default; provided that, without limiting and subject to the foregoing, each Participating Counterparty shall be permitted during the Forbearance

Period to request, demand, or provide notice of margin, collateral or payments under the Applicable Agreements or other applicable law; provided further that nothing contained herein will prevent a Participating Counterparty from exercising any such rights or remedies that are required by FINRA Rule 4210 as long as the applicable Participating Counterparty has exercised good faith efforts to obtain a waiver of, an extension pursuant to, or to otherwise excuse compliance with, FINRA Rule 4210.

Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any Acknowledged Event of Default or any other default, event of default or termination event under any of the Applicable Agreements or an amendment, supplement or modification of any term or condition of any of the Applicable Agreements. Upon the termination of the Forbearance Period, the agreement of the Participating Counterparties to forbear as set forth in this Section 1 shall be void ab initio and immediately terminate without the requirement of any demand, presentment, protest, or notice of any kind (including any written notice of such termination or any obligation to provide notice of any default, event of default, termination event or exercise of remedies that may be required under such Applicable Agreement), all of which are hereby waived by the Companies. The Companies hereby acknowledge and agree that, upon the termination of the Forbearance Period, the Participating Counterparties that are party hereto may at any time, and from time to time, in their sole and absolute discretion, with respect to the Acknowledged Events of Default or any other default or event of default that may have occurred under the Applicable Agreements, exercise against any applicable Seller Entity (and its properties) any and all of their rights, remedies, powers and privileges under and in accordance with such Applicable Agreements, applicable law and/or equity, all of which rights, remedies, powers and privileges are fully reserved by each of the Participating Counterparties, and without regard to any grace or notice periods provided under such Applicable Agreements, all of which shall be deemed to have expired.

2. Security Interest. Pursuant and subject to the terms of the First Forbearance Agreement and the Security and Collateral Agency Agreement, the Companies granted a security interest in the Designated Assets (as defined in the First Forbearance Agreement) to the Collateral Agent and its successors and assigns, for the benefit of the First Forbearance Counterparties in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Realized Losses. With respect to the security interest granted by the Companies, (i) during the Forbearance Period, the Companies shall have full power and authority to use cash collateral (as that term is defined in section 363(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”)) in accordance with the budget annexed hereto as Schedule 4, subject to the variances set forth therein, and to make payments to professionals of Participating Counterparties regardless of whether such amounts are included in the budget, and (ii) upon the expiration of the Forbearance Period, the lien on the Designated Assets shall be subject to a customary carveout for professional fees and other wind-down expenses as set forth more particularly in Section 7.3 of the Security and Collateral Agency Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, during the Forbearance Period, in no event shall any Participating Counterparty have any contractual rights to enforce any provisions of any Collateral Contract to which such Participating Counterparty is not a party, and the Participating Counterparties’ rights with respect to the Collateral Contracts (as defined in the First Forbearance Agreement) to which they are not a party are solely rights to receive what Companies receive under such Collateral Contracts. For the further avoidance of doubt, this Agreement constitutes an “Additional Forbearance Agreement” as such term is defined in the First Forbearance Agreement and in the Security and Collateral Agency Agreement.

3. Conditions to Effectiveness. This Agreement shall become effective as of the date (the “Effective Date”) on which the following conditions shall have been satisfied or waived in writing by the Participating Counterparties:

- (a) the execution of this Agreement by the Companies and at least one First Forbearance Counterparty, provided that, with respect to a Participating Counterparty that executes a counterpart of this Agreement within one (1) business day after the Effective Date, (i) this Agreement shall be effective as to such Participating Counterparty upon such execution by such Participating Counterparty and (ii) the Companies shall provide updated versions of Schedule 1 and Schedule 2 to all of the Participating Counterparties within one (1) business day after execution by such Participating Counterparty;
- (b) the security interests granted pursuant to the First Forbearance Agreement and the Security and Collateral Agency Agreement shall have been perfected (in the case of any assets that can be perfected with a UCC filing) or are being perfected in accordance with the Security Documents;
- (c) any default or event of default that has occurred and is continuing under the Applicable Agreements other than the Acknowledged Events of Default that has been expressly waived by the applicable Participating Counterparty is set forth in Schedule 8;
- (d) to the extent invoiced at least one business day prior to the Effective Date, the Companies shall have paid the reasonable fees and out-of-pocket expenses of counsel and other professional advisors to each Participating Counterparty; and
- (e) immediately before and after giving effect to this Agreement, the representations and warranties of the Companies set forth in Section 8 and 9 herein shall be true and correct in all material respects on and as of the Effective Date.

4. Common Interest Rate. During the Forbearance Period, notwithstanding any term in any Applicable Agreement to the contrary, the rate of interest or the pricing rate that shall accrue on any and all obligations of any Seller Entity owed to each Participating Counterparty under such Applicable Agreement shall be the sum of (i) LIBOR (as defined and determined pursuant to the terms of each Applicable Agreement) plus (ii) 5% (the “Common Rate”). Notwithstanding the first sentence of this Section 4, during the Forbearance Period, the obligations owing under each Applicable Agreement shall accrue at the greater of the Common Rate or the rate of interest the related Participating Counterparty is entitled to charge thereunder (the “Contractual Rate”), but the obligation of the Seller Entities to pay any excess in the amount of interest accrued at the Contractual Rate over the amount of interest accrued at the Common Rate shall be deferred for each Participating Counterparty until, and shall be payable to such Participating Counterparty upon, the termination of the Forbearance Period. During the Forbearance Period, to the extent the income, funds, cash collateral and other proceeds received under or in connection with an Applicable Agreement and/or Applicable Assets thereunder is insufficient to pay the Common Rate due on the applicable due date under such Applicable Agreement, the applicable Seller Entity shall pay such unpaid amount on such due date.

5. Agreement to Extend Maturity. During the Forbearance Period, notwithstanding any term in any Applicable Agreement to the contrary, each Participating Counterparty agrees to extend the maturity dates of each of its Applicable Agreements until the end of the Forbearance Period. Each Participating Counterparty shall instruct the applicable prime brokerage to treat the terms of each of its Applicable Agreements as having been overridden as set forth in this Section 5.

6. Application of Designated Assets. Following liquidation thereof pursuant to the Security and Collateral Agency Agreement, the Designated Assets shall be applied and paid to Participating Counterparties based upon each Participating Counterparty’s Pro Rata Realized Losses. In addition, as set forth in the First Forbearance Agreement, with respect to any First Forbearance Counterparty that is not a Participating Counterparty under this Agreement, the Designated Assets to be applied and paid to such First Forbearance Counterparty shall be calculated based upon fifty percent of the Designated Assets. For the avoidance of doubt, although the application and payment of Designated Assets shall be calculated as set forth in this Section 6 and Section 6 of the First Forbearance Agreement, a First Forbearance Counterparty that does not execute this Agreement shall not, and shall not be deemed to waive, release or otherwise modify the security interest in and lien on the Designated Assets or its claims under its Applicable Agreements. For each Participating Counterparty under this Agreement, the Designated Assets to be applied and paid to such Participating Counterparty shall be calculated based on one hundred percent of the Designated Assets.

7. Dispositions of Collateral.

- (a) Subject to advance written notice to all Participating Counterparties, the Companies and a Participating Counterparty may agree to terminate a transaction pursuant to an Applicable Agreement (“Applicable Transaction”) in whole or in part through a liquidation, close-out, optional termination or the sale of, in each case, all or a portion of the assets (including, without limitation, cash) subject to such Applicable Agreement (“Applicable Assets”), provided that (x) each sale of the Applicable Assets shall be made on an arm’s length basis by the Companies on customary market terms (which may include sales to affiliates of the Companies or the Participating Counterparties and/or the credit bidding of assets by the Participating Counterparties) and (y) unless otherwise approved by the Required Counterparties, no such sale will result in a loss in excess of the amounts set forth in Section 7(b) below.
- (b) The Required Counterparties shall be deemed to have approved (i) the sale of a Loan Asset or a pool of Loan Assets provided that such sale does not result in a loss in excess of 1% of the Participating Counterparty’s Loan Balance, and (ii) the sale of Securities Assets to the extent that such sale does not result in an Aggregate Securities Net Loss in excess of 10% of the Participating Counterparty’s Securities Balance.
- (c) Within two (2) business days after settlement of a sale in accordance with this Section 7, the Companies shall send a report detailing any gains and/or losses and the then current outstanding amounts due under the related Applicable Agreements in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the parties.
- (d) All proceeds of any such termination described above (net of reasonable and customary expenses (if any) in connection with the applicable disposition) shall be remitted to and applied by the relevant Participating Counterparty as follows: (i) first, to the outstanding repurchase price in respect of the disposed Applicable Assets, (ii) second, to outstanding margin deficits with respect to such Applicable Agreement, (iii) third, to all other obligations owed under such Applicable Agreement, (iv) fourth, to all other obligations owed by the Companies or their affiliates to the relevant Participating Counterparty or its affiliates under any other Applicable Agreement (regardless of whether the applicable Participating Counterparty or such affiliate has a contractual right to do so under the Applicable Agreements or any other agreement with any of the Companies), and (v) fifth, after termination of all of a Participating Counterparty’s Applicable Agreements, satisfaction of all obligations thereunder, and application of all remaining proceeds in accordance with the foregoing, any further proceeds shall be subject to the lien and security interest granted in Section 2 of the First Forbearance Agreement and any such excess cash proceeds shall be remitted directly to Deposit Accounts

(as defined in the Security and Collateral Agency Agreement) that are subject to Deposit Account Control Agreements (as defined in the Security and Collateral Agency Agreement).

- (e) The Companies and the Participating Counterparties will reasonably cooperate to facilitate the sales contemplated in this Section 7 and any sales executed prior to the Effective Date, and the Companies shall use best efforts to receive the consent of the Required Counterparties as required in Section 7(b) above.
- (f) Further, all cash collateral that is held by any Participating Counterparty or any affiliate thereof in connection with any Applicable Agreement shall be applied by the relevant Participating Counterparty in accordance with the foregoing.

8. Representations and Agreements of the Companies. Each of the Companies hereby represents and warrants that each of the following statements is true, accurate and complete as of the date hereof:

- (a) Each of the Companies understands the temporary nature of the provisions of this Agreement and recognizes that no Participating Counterparty has any obligation to expand or extend any of the terms hereof;
- (b) There are no material agreements between the Companies and any other counterparties that have not been disclosed to the Participating Counterparties;
- (c) The Companies are in good standing with respect to any governmental or other agency which may regulate them; and
- (d) The Companies have not received any notice of default or event of default under any Applicable Agreements and the Companies have not received any notice of default relating to any other indebtedness, except as specified in Schedule 5.

9. Representations and Warranties by All Parties. Each of the parties hereto hereby represents and warrants that each of the following statements is true, accurate and complete as to such party as of the date hereof:

- (a) Such party has carefully read and fully understood all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement;
- (b) Such party has consulted with, or had a full and fair opportunity to consult with, an attorney regarding the terms and conditions of this Agreement;
- (c) Such party has had a full and fair opportunity to participate in the drafting of this Agreement;
- (d) Such party is freely, voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently entering into this Agreement;
- (e) In entering into this Agreement, such party has not relied upon any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement not expressly set forth herein or in its respective Applicable Agreement;

- (f) This Agreement has been duly authorized and validly executed and delivered by such party and constitutes each such party's legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms;
- (g) Such party is executing this Agreement and agreeing to be bound on account of all Applicable Agreements to which it is a party; and
- (h) Such party is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of formation and has the full power and legal authority to execute this Agreement, consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and perform its obligations hereunder.

10. Covenants by the Companies. The Companies hereby covenant that, during the Forbearance Period:

- (a) within two (2) business days after the Effective Date, the Companies shall make a payment to reduce the principal balance owed to each Participating Counterparty in an amount equal to its Pro Rata UPB Share of $150 million;
- (b) no dividend or other distribution shall be made on any preferred or common stock of any Seller Entity;
- (c) the independent directors of any Seller Entity shall be paid only with common stock in such Seller Entity, except with respect to Independent Directors of special purpose entity Seller Entity subsidiaries of MFA Financial, Inc.;
- (d) in connection with a Non-Participating Counterparty's agreement to waive, or forbear from exercising remedies with respect to, a default or potential default under a repurchase agreement or similar agreement with such Non-Participating Counterparty, if any of the Companies agrees (x) to provide any benefit or consideration to such Non-Participating Counterparty that is more favorable than the consideration or benefits offered hereunder (including, without limitation, the benefit of a forbearance period of shorter duration than the Forbearance Period and the payment of any fees in connection with such waiver or forbearance) or (y) to any terms or conditions with such Non-Participating Counterparty that are more favorable than the terms set forth in this Agreement, (i) the Companies shall provide advance written notice to the Participating Counterparties of such consideration, benefit, terms or conditions and (ii) such consideration, benefit, terms or condition shall be deemed incorporated herein and each of the Participating Counterparties shall be provided with such consideration or benefit on the same terms as such Non-Participating Counterparty, without the need of any further action on the part of any party, except that the Companies shall take such actions as may be necessary or reasonably requested by any Participating Counterparty to perfect the rights of the Participating Counterparties in and to such benefits, and provided, further, for the avoidance of doubt, that the First Forbearance Agreement does not constitute an agreement with a Non-Participating Counterparty for purposes of this Section 10(d);
- (e) the Companies shall cooperate fully with the Participating Counterparties and their respective agents and professionals (legal and financial), including in connection with any financial review or appraisal of the businesses, assets or financial condition of the Companies, to provide the Participating Counterparties and their respective agents and professionals with all reasonably requested information, in all cases at the expense of the Companies.
Without

limiting the foregoing, (i) upon the request of any Participating Counterparty, and subject to compliance with the confidentiality provisions included in such Applicable Agreement, the Companies shall grant such Participating Counterparty and its respective professionals (including, without limitation, its lawyers, accountants, appraisers and financial advisors) reasonable access to, and shall as promptly as practical schedule meetings and conference calls with, management personnel and any financial advisors or restructuring consultants retained by the Companies, (ii) the Companies shall on or prior to the Effective Date have created a data room with outstanding principal balance and asset information in a form acceptable to the Participating Counterparties, including loan tapes and CUSIP numbers for all outstanding transactions, and (iii) the Companies' financial advisor shall furnish the Participating Counterparties with daily reporting of transactions entered into by the Companies on the previous business day, including relevant details of any sales of encumbered assets and repayment of associated financing, principal and interest cash flows collected from encumbered assets that are used to pay down associated financing, and other significant cash flows from transactions involving (1) all dispositions pursuant to Section 7 of this Agreement, (2) settlement of sales of previously unsettled encumbered or unencumbered assets that occurred prior to execution of this agreement, (3) settlements or accommodations from financing counterparties not party to this agreement; (4) cash outflows and related details on payments for general and administrative or other expenses in the normal course of the Companies' business to the extent that they exceed $500,000 on any given day as well as details on any single expense exceeding $200,000, and (5) consolidated financial balance sheet information for MFA Financial, Inc., and any other information required to be provided under any of the Applicable Agreements, including daily reporting on margin calls;

- (f) the Companies shall pay the reasonable and documented professional fees and expenses, including legal fees, of each Participating Counterparty incurred in connection with the consideration of the forbearance provided for herein (including any diligence and analysis in respect thereof) and the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and any extension or modification thereof, including fees and expenses of a financial advisor for the Participating Counterparties;

- (o) the Companies acknowledge and agree that New York Governor Andrew Cuomo's Executive Order No. 202.9, "Continuing Temporary Suspension and Modification of Laws Relating to Disaster Emergency" is inapplicable to any of the Applicable Agreements, and that the Companies will not seek to challenge or assert a claim or defense against any Participating Counterparty on the basis of such executive order;
- (p) unless otherwise agreed upon by the Required Counterparties, each Seller Entity shall not enter into any new repurchase agreements, forward transaction agreements, hedging agreements, ISDA agreements, warehouse agreements, swap agreements, loan agreements, and other related agreements or any transactions thereunder or any new transactions under an Applicable Agreements or any other similar agreement, or grant any liens upon its assets on account of the forgoing or incur any other indebtedness of the Companies;

- (r) on a weekly basis during the Forbearance Period, the Companies shall provide reasonably detailed written reports on the progress of the Companies in their recapitalization and refinancing process.

11. Releases. Upon execution of this Agreement by each of the Companies and each of the Participating Counterparties, the Companies, on behalf of themselves and their successors or assigns (collectively, the "Releasing Parties") releases, waives and forever discharges (and further agrees not to allege, claim or pursue) any and all claims, rights, causes of action, counterclaims or defenses of any kind whatsoever whether in law, equity or otherwise (including, without limitation, any claims relating to (i) the making or administration of transactions under the Applicable Agreements (including any acts or omissions in respect of margin calls, related valuations, and notice requirements), including, without limitation, any such claims and defenses based on fraud, mistake, duress, usury or misrepresentation, or any other claim based on so-called "lender liability" theories, (ii) any covenants, agreements, duties or obligations set forth in the Applicable Agreements, (iii) increased financing costs, interest or other carrying costs, (iv) penalties, lost profits or loss of business opportunity, (v) legal, accounting and other administrative or professional fees and expenses and incidental, consequential and punitive damages payable to third parties, (vi) damages to business reputation, (viii) any claims arising under 11 U.S.C. §§ 541-550 or any claims for avoidance or recovery under any other federal, state or foreign law equivalent, or (ix) any claims arising from any actual or alleged decline in the value of any Applicable Assets during the Forbearance Period), which any of the Releasing Parties might otherwise have or may have against the Participating Counterparties, their present or former subsidiaries and affiliates or any of the foregoing's officers directors, employees, attorneys or other representatives or agents (collectively, the "Releasees") in each case on account of any conduct, condition, act, omission, event, contract, liability, obligation, demand, covenant, promise, indebtedness, claim, right, cause of action, suit, damage, defense, judgment, circumstance or matter of any kind whatsoever which existed, arose or occurred at any time prior to the date of this Agreement relating to the Applicable Agreements, this Agreement and/or the transactions contemplated thereby or hereby (any of the foregoing, a "Claim").

Each of the Releasing Parties expressly acknowledges and agrees, with respect to the Claims, that it waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any applicable U.S. federal or state law, or any principle of U.S. common law, that would otherwise limit a release or discharge of any unknown Claims pursuant to this paragraph. Furthermore, each of the Releasing Parties hereby absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably covenants and agrees with and in favor of each Releasee that it will not sue (at law, in equity, in any regulatory proceeding or otherwise) any Releasee on the basis of any Claim released and/or discharged by the Releasing Parties pursuant to paragraph. Except as provided for in Section 12 with respect to a Participating Counterparty that breaches this Agreement, the foregoing release, covenant and waivers of this paragraph shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or the termination of the Applicable Agreements, this Agreement or any provision thereof.

12. Remedies for Breach by Participating Counterparty. Any Participating Counterparty that fails to comply with any material term of this Agreement during the Forbearance Period (a “Non-Complying Counterparty”), which failure remains uncured for a period of two (2) business days following such Participating Counterparty’s receipt of written notice of such non-compliance, and which failure to comply has been determined by a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction, shall (i) be deemed immediately to have forfeited its lien on the Designated Assets; and (ii) no longer be deemed a Releasee (and the release provided to such Participating Counterparty and its related Releasees shall defease retroactively and be of no force or effect whatsoever). For the avoidance of doubt, (i) a Participating Counterparty’s exercise of any rights or remedies following the Forbearance Period shall not be deemed a breach of this Agreement, and (ii) no Participating Counterparty shall be deemed a Non-Complying Counterparty solely by virtue of such Participating Counterparty failing to extend its agreements under Section 1 at the end of the Forbearance Period.

13. No Waiver of Rights or Remedies. The Participating Counterparties and the Companies agree that other than as expressly set forth herein, nothing in this Agreement or the performance by the parties of their respective obligations hereunder constitutes or shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of any of the parties’ rights or remedies under the terms of such Applicable Agreement or applicable law, all of which are hereby reserved, including without limitation, (i) any rights that the Participating Counterparties may have to charge interest at a post-default rate under the terms of such Applicable Agreement, and (ii) any rights or remedies in connection with any bankruptcy proceedings in respect of a Seller Entity (to which this Agreement shall not apply). Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, this Agreement is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed or construed to be, an amendment, supplement, modification, cure, satisfaction, reinstatement, novation, or release of the Applicable Agreements or any indebtedness incurred thereunder or evidenced thereby. The parties further agree that the running of all statutes of limitation and the doctrine of laches applicable to all claims or causes of action that the Participating Counterparties may be entitled to take or bring in order to enforce their rights and remedies against the Seller Entities are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, tolled and suspended during the Forbearance Period. This Agreement is limited in nature and nothing herein shall be deemed to establish a custom or course of dealing between any Participating Counterparty and any Seller Entity. Except as set forth in Section 12 hereof, in no event shall this Agreement extinguish the obligations for the payment of money outstanding under any Applicable Agreement or discharge or release any collateral or other security therefor.

14. Sale of Claims During Forbearance Period. During the Forbearance Period and provided that no Triggering Event shall have occurred, but subject to the provisions of Section 7 hereof, no Participating Counterparty may sell or otherwise transfer (either directly or indirectly) any claim it may have arising out of any Applicable Agreement to any person other than another Participating Counterparty, or an affiliate thereof that expressly agrees to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, without the prior written consent of the Required Counterparties. In no event shall any claims be sold or otherwise transferred (whether directly or indirectly) to the Companies.

15. Safe Harbor. Each of the parties hereto intend (i) for this Agreement to qualify for the safe harbor treatment provided by the Bankruptcy Code and for each of the Participating Counterparties to be entitled to all of the rights, benefits and protections afforded to Persons under the Bankruptcy Code with respect to a “repurchase agreement” as defined in Section 101(47) of the Bankruptcy Code, a “securities contract” as defined in Section 741(7) of the Bankruptcy Code and a “master netting agreement” as defined in Section 101(38A) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that all payments and other transfers made under or pursuant to this Agreement are deemed “margin payments” or “settlement payments,” as defined in Section 741 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) that the grant of security interest set forth in this Agreement are intended to constitute a security agreement or other arrangement or other credit enhancement related to each Applicable Agreement and transactions thereunder as defined under Sections 101(47)(A)(v) and 741(7)(A)(xi) of the Bankruptcy Code and a “master netting agreement” as defined in Section 101(38A) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (iii) that each Participating Counterparty (for so long as such Participating Counterparty is a “financial institution,” “financial participant” or other entity listed in Section 555, 559, 561, 362(b)(6), 362(b)(7) or 362(b)(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) shall be entitled to, without limitation, the liquidation, termination, acceleration, netting, set-off, and non-avoidability rights afforded to parties such as such Participating Counterparty to “repurchase agreements” pursuant to Sections 559, 362(b)(7) and 546(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, “securities contracts” pursuant to Sections 555, 362(b)(6) and 546(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and “master netting agreements” pursuant to Sections 561, 362(b)(27) and 546(j) of the Bankruptcy Code. The parties hereto further acknowledge and agree that if any Participating Counterparty is an “insured depository institution,” as such term is defined in the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended (“FDIA”), then this Agreement hereunder is a “qualified financial contract,” as that term is defined in FDIA and any rules, orders or policy statements thereunder (except insofar as the type of assets subject to this Agreement would render such definition inapplicable). The parties hereto further acknowledge and agree that this Agreement constitutes a “netting contract” as defined in and subject to Title IV of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Improvement Act of 1991 (“FDICIA”) and each payment entitlement and payment obligation under any Transaction shall constitute a “covered contractual payment entitlement” or “covered contractual payment obligation,” respectively, as defined in and subject to FDICIA (except insofar as a party is not a “financial institution” as that term is defined in FDICIA). The parties agree that the terms of Section 1 and Section 2 and the related defined terms of the form of bilateral template entitled “Full-Length Omnibus (for use between U.S. G-SIBs and Corporate Groups)” published by ISDA on November 2, 2018 (currently available on the 2018 ISDA U.S. Resolution Stay Protocol page at www.isda.org), are hereby incorporated into and form a part of this Agreement, and for such purposes this Agreement shall be deemed a “Covered Agreement,” each party that is a Covered Entity shall be deemed a “Covered Entity” and each party (whether or not it is a Covered Entity) shall be deemed a “Counterparty Entity” with respect to each other party that is a Covered Entity. For purposes of the foregoing sentence “Covered Entity” means any of the following: (i) a “covered entity” as that term is defined in, and interpreted in accordance with, 12 C.F.R. § 252.82(b); (ii) a “covered bank” as that term is defined in, and interpreted in accordance with, 12 C.F.R. § 47.3(b); or (iii) a “covered FSI” as that term is defined in, and interpreted in accordance with, 12 C.F.R. § 382.2(b).

16. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial.

- (a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, notwithstanding its conflict of laws principles or any other rule, regulation or principle that would result in the application of any other state's law.
- (b) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY CONSENTS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT LOCATED WITHIN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN, CITY OF NEW YORK, STATE OF NEW YORK AND APPELLATE COURTS FROM EITHER OF THEM AND IRREVOCABLY AGREES THAT ALL ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE LITIGATED IN SUCH COURTS. EACH PARTY HERETO EXPRESSLY SUBMITS AND CONSENTS TO THE JURISDICTION OF THE AFORESAID COURTS AND WAIVES ANY DEFENSE OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS.
- (c) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY).

15. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with all Applicable Agreements to which the parties are bound, the First Forbearance Agreement, and the Security Documents constitute the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings relating to any Acknowledged Events of Default.

16. Modifications. No part or provision of this Agreement may be changed, modified, waived, discharged or terminated except by mutual written agreement of all of the parties hereto. Except as so mutually agreed, the Companies agree that, during the Forbearance Period, they will not permit any party hereto to be relieved of any of its obligations hereunder or take any similar action that would have a comparable effect.

17. Defined Terms. The definitions set forth in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall have no bearing on the characterization of any agreement or qualification of any agreement for the protections afforded in 11 U.S.C. §§ 362, 546, 553, 555-561.

The use of electronic signatures and electronic records (including, without limitation, any contract or other record created, generated, sent, communicated, received, or stored by electronic means) shall be of the same legal effect, validity and enforceability as a manually executed signature or use of a paper-based record-keeping system to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act and any other applicable law, including, without limitation, any state law based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act or the Uniform Commercial Code.

MFA Financial, Inc. Announces Extended Forbearance and Provides Company Update

Company Release - 4/27/2020

NEW YORK, April 27, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- MFA Financial, Inc. (NYSE: MFA) (the "Company") announced today that it has entered into a second Forbearance Agreement with certain counterparties to its various repurchase agreement financing arrangements and provided additional Company updates.

- Extended Forbearance. Under a new Forbearance Agreement that the Company entered into earlier today with certain counterparties holding a significant majority of its outstanding repurchase obligations (the "Second Forbearance Agreement"), such counterparties have agreed to forbear from exercising any rights or remedies under their respective repurchase agreements with the Company, including selling collateral to enforce margin calls, through June 1, 2020 (unless terminated sooner upon the occurrence of certain events). The Second Forbearance Agreement extends the forbearance period agreed to under the previously announced Forbearance Agreement that the Company entered into with counterparties on April 10, 2020, which was set to expire today at 6:30 p.m. ET (the "First Forbearance Agreement").

- The terms and conditions of the Second Forbearance Agreement are substantially similar to those under the First Forbearance Agreement.
- Participating counterparties to the Second Forbearance Agreement represent repurchase obligations of an aggregate of $4.4 billion, which represents approximately 84% of the Company's $5.3 billion repurchase obligations outstanding as of April 24, 2020. Since entering into the First Forbearance Agreement on April 10, 2020, the Company's obligations under its and its subsidiaries repurchase agreements have further decreased by approximately 8%. This reduction occurred primarily from ongoing sales of certain assets and the payoff of the associated repurchase obligations and unpaid margin calls.
- Under the terms of the Second Forbearance Agreement, the Company has also agreed to make a cash payment to the participating counterparties of $150 million, which will be applied to reduce the Company's outstanding repurchase obligation balances with counterparties participating in the Second Forbearance Agreement.

During the period covered by the Second Forbearance Agreement, the Company intends to continue to explore other potential transactions to further reduce its obligations under its existing repurchase agreements, source financing that is generally more durable than existing funding alternatives and raise cash to bolster its liquidity. In addition, the Company will continue to engage in discussions with its counterparties for further forbearance as and if needed.

- Portfolio Update. The Company has continued taking steps to manage and de-lever its portfolio and generate liquidity. In particular, since April 10, 2020, the Company has sold residential mortgage assets at improved levels, as prices have partially recovered from the depressed valuations seen from mid-March through early April. These sales resulted in proceeds of $484.4 million and included, $282.9 million of MSR-related assets, $147.7 million of CRT securities and $51.4 million of Agency MBS.

- Cash and liquidity update. As of April 24, 2020, the Company had total cash balances of $430.9 million, including $143.8 million of cash on deposit with repurchase agreement counterparties to meet margin calls. As described above, cash balances will be reduced by the $150 million payment to repurchase agreement counterparties to reduce outstanding repurchase obligations. Under the Second Forbearance Agreement, the participating counterparties continue to have a secured interest in the Company's previously unencumbered assets, primarily residential whole loans, real estate owned, cash and other assets with an estimated market value of approximately $1.4 billion as of April 24, 2020.
