Forward looking statements

When used in this presentation or other written or oral communications, statements which are not historical in nature, including those containing words such as "will," "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "plan," "continue," "intend," "should," "could," "would," "may" or similar expressions, are intended to identify "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and, as such, may involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Statements regarding the following subjects, among others, may be forward-looking: changes in interest rates and the market value of MFA's MBS, an increase of which could result in a reduction of the yield on MBS in our portfolio and could require us to reinvest the proceeds received by us as a result of such prepayments in MBS with lower coupons; changes in the prepayment rates on the mortgage loans securing MFA's MBS; credit risks underlying MFA's assets, including; changes in the default rates and management's assumptions regarding default rates on the mortgage loans securing MFA's Non-Agency MBS and as related to MFA's residential whole loan portfolio; MFA's ability to borrow to finance its assets and the terms, including the cost, maturity and other terms, of any such borrowings; implementation of or changes in government regulations or programs affecting MFA's business; MFA's estimates regarding taxable income the actual amount of which is dependent on a number of factors, including, but not limited to, changes in the amount of interest income and financing costs, the method elected by the Company to accrete the market discount on Non-Agency MBS and the extent of prepayments, realized losses and changes in the composition of MFA's Agency MBS and Non-Agency MBS portfolios that may occur during the applicable tax period, including gain or loss on any MBS disposals; the timing and amount of distributions to stockholders, which are declared and paid at the discretion of MFA's Board of Directors and will depend on, among other things, MFA's taxable income, its financial results and overall financial condition and liquidity, maintenance of its REIT qualification and such other factors as the Board deems relevant; MFA's ability to maintain its qualification as a REIT for federal income tax purposes; MFA's ability to maintain its exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (or the Investment Company Act), including statements regarding the Concept Release issued by the SEC relating to interpretive issues under the Investment Company Act with respect to the status under the Investment Company Act of certain companies that are engaged in the business of acquiring mortgages and mortgage-related interests; MFA's ability to successfully implement its strategy to grow its residential whole loan portfolio; expected returns on our investments in non-performing residential whole loans (NPLs), which are affected by, among other things, the length of time required to foreclose upon, sell, liquidate or otherwise reach a resolution of the property underlying the NPL, home price values, amounts advanced to carry the asset (e.g., taxes, insurance, maintenance expenses, etc. on the underlying property) and the amount ultimately realized upon resolution of the asset; and risks associated with investing in real estate assets, including changes in business conditions and the general economy. These and other risks, uncertainties and factors, including those described in the annual, quarterly and current reports that MFA files with the Securities and Exchange Commission, could cause MFA's actual results to differ materially from those projected in any forward-looking statements it makes. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made. New risks and uncertainties arise over time and it is not possible to predict those events or how they may affect MFA. Except as required by law, MFA is not obligated to, and does not intend to, update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Executive summary

- In this low interest rate environment, we continue to generate attractive returns from residential mortgage credit assets.
- In the second quarter we generated EPS and dividend per share of $0.20.
- MFA continued to acquire credit sensitive residential mortgage assets such as 3 year step-up RPL/NPL securities and credit sensitive loans in response to attractive investment opportunities.

Through volatile markets and both interest rate and credit cycles, MFA has generated strong long term returns to investors

Time Period	Annualized MFA Shareholder Return <sup>(1)</sup>
Since 2000	15.0%
10 Year	13.4%
5 Year	15.3%
1 Year	20.3%

<sup>(1)</sup> As of 9/15/16 assuming reinvestment of dividends

2016 MFA strategy

1) Invest in high value-added assets

- A. Generate returns from investment in credit sensitive residential mortgage assets
  - MFA's credit sensitive assets continue to perform well. Legacy Non-Agency MBS Credit Reserve has been reduced by $39.9 million over the 12 month period ended June 30, 2016.
- B. Acquire assets with less interest rate sensitivity
  - 74% of MFA MBS are adjustable, hybrid or step-up
  - Net portfolio duration of 0.50 at June 30, 2016

2) Maintain staying power and the ability to invest in distressed, less liquid markets

- Permanent equity capital
- Debt to Equity Ratio of 3.3x at June 30, 2016 is low enough to accommodate potential declines in asset prices.
- MFA is able to invest in longer term assets while other investors may face concerns about capital outflows and potential mark-to-market losses.

Q3 investment flows through August 31

Our assets run off due to amortization and paydowns, allowing reinvestment opportunities in changing interest rate and credit environments.

(1) Net of 37 bps of servicing costs.

(2) Residential whole loans held at fair value produce GAAP income/loss based on changes in fair value in the current period and therefore results will vary on a quarter to quarter basis. The company expects to realize returns over time on these investments of 5-7%.

Undistributed REIT taxable income

- As of June 30, 2016 MFA had undistributed REIT taxable income of $0.22 per share.
- Undistributed REIT taxable income includes the impact of the settlement of the Countrywide litigation. MFA received its share of the settlement proceeds during the second quarter (resolving MFA's involvement in the Countrywide actions), resulting in additional estimated taxable income for the quarter of approximately $0.05 per share.

Prepayment speeds on MFA's Legacy Non-Agency MBS and Agency MBS have trended together over time

- MFA's Agency MBS were acquired at an average premium of 4% and at June 30, 2016 have a remaining premium amount of $154.6 million while our Legacy Non-Agency MBS were acquired at an average discount of 27% and at June 30, 2016 have a remaining discount amount of $1.0 billion.

Legacy Non-Agency MBS discount accretion has exceeded Agency MBS premium amortization since 2013

While economic growth rate is uncertain, there are many positive fundamentals for residential mortgage credit and home prices

- Strong fundamental and technical support for residential credit assets and home prices
- Sales of existing homes rose 3% year over year to 5.57 million and remain at their highest annual pace since February 2007*
- Median existing single-family home prices are up 4.8% year over year*
- Total housing inventory is down to 2.12 million, coming close to the lowest level in over 15 years*
- Foreclosure inventory is down 24.5% year over year (as of May 2016)**
- 268,000 residential properties regained equity in Q1 2016 from the prior quarter**

- Re-Performing and Non-Performing Loan Portfolio

$ in Millions

June 30, 2016	March 31, 2016	Dec 31, 2015	Sep 30, 2015	June 30, 2015
$1,077	$1,024	$895	$777	$429

- At today's market prices, re-performing and non-performing residential mortgage loans generate higher yields than residential MBS.
- Residential whole loans are qualifying interests for purposes of REIT qualification and 1940 Act exemption.
- Significant expected supply.

Credit sensitive residential whole loans: growing asset class for MFA

- Early results indicate returns to date are consistent with our expectation of 5-7%.
- Utilizes the same residential mortgage credit expertise we have employed in Legacy Non-Agency MBS since 2008.
- Ability to oversee servicing decisions (loan modifications, short sales, etc.) to produce better NPV outcomes.
- At June 30, 2016 MFA has obtained financing of $584.0 million through three different warehouse borrowing facilities. We are currently negotiating the establishment of additional whole loan funding facilities.
- MFA actively manages its loan portfolio through in-house asset management professionals and utilizes third-party special servicers.

Second quarter RPL/NPL MBS holdings

- Current market yields of mid to high 3%
- Well protected portfolio with current credit enhancement of 48%
- Very short assets with an average of 21 months remaining to step-up

As of June 30, 2016	Fair Value mm	Net Coupon	Months to Step-Up	Current Credit Support	Original Credit Support	3 Month Average Bond CPR
Re-Performing MBS	$485	3.71%	13	47%	40%	20.1%

Total RPL/NPL MBS	$2,639	3.84%	21	48%	46%	25.4%

LTV breakdown of non-delinquent mortgage loans underlying MFA's Legacy Non-Agency MBS

- These loans are up to date on all required mortgage payments.
- Underlying loans are over ten years seasoned on average.

Summary

- We continue to utilize our expertise to identify and acquire attractive credit sensitive residential mortgage assets.
- Continued to acquire 3 Year step-up RPL/NPL securities and credit sensitive mortgage loans during the quarter.
- Our credit sensitive assets continue to perform well.
- MFA is well positioned for changes in prepayment rates, monetary policy and/or interest rates.
